Dear Friends,

I do not want to rush things at all, but right after Christmas is the new year. Are you ready? Plan your diet, join the gym, and jot down a few resolutions so we can begin the new year right. Ok, perhaps we need to do a few of those things, but maybe 2026 deserves a fresh approach. Maybe this year is the time to shake things up. Maybe establish some accountability and begin memorizing some scripture with a friend, stranger, or enemy. Perhaps this is the year to take a deep dive on some bible study. Go look at what the bible says about a bad habit or the use of our gifts. Do you need some ideas? Let's talk, I'd love to help.

Ok, now that I pumped you up about something new, let me remind you about something I started doing several years ago. I read Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John (about one chapter a day) beginning on January 1st and leading up to Resurrection Day (April 5) . I read it in a chronological bible or you can read it in your regular bible. Just read from the gospels by alternating back and forth. As you reach mid-March, you will find yourself in the thick of the passion week and crucifixion. I hope you will give it a try.

Praying for you friends,

Content in Christ,

Don
