Merry Christmas Lakes

Earlier this week I was at Youth Haven Ranch in Rives Junction just north of Jackson. They let pastors use the Presidential Suite for a couple day get-aways. The room is comfortable and they have thousands of acres that include a section of the Grand River. There are miles of trails through the woods. I love stalking the wildlife (deer, turkeys, and beavers). At night, the sky is crystal clear, and I enjoy listening to the coyote packs howl back and forth to each other.

Yes! This trip is a working trip for me. This year I worked on my Corinthian notes for Cuba as well as worked ahead in Ephesians (Lakes Wednesday night & Fox Run Bible studies. I also spent time on the sermon for today on joy. Usually while I'm away, Ann stays up late into the night doing Christmas baking.

As we prepare for Christmas, let's spend some time on our hearts. Do your decorating and shopping, but don't forget to meditate on the reason for the season, Jesus Christ.

Merry Christmas!

Don
